

America is a nation that honors personal freedom. If citizens choose to listen to satellite radio, they should be able to get instant traffic and weather reports.